About Vahshi

Vahshi Kamal Addin Bafghi is one of the proficient poets in the tenth century. We cannot trust properly on his birthday. Abdalnabi-Fakhr Alzamani, has written Tazkere-Meykhane (a biography) said that he died at age 52 years. As Molla Ghotb-Shadebaff said: Nightingale in flower garden of curtesy closed lips = 991, because his death date is certain, so his birth date is 1594, and there is no other way to know the date of his birth. (Nafisi, 1985, 15). During Vahshi’s life, three strong government rulers: Gurkanyan in India, in Othmani legal Ismail Shah and Shah Tahmaseb Safavid in Iran, in terms of political, economic and social conditions of his time were influential. The frenetic life of the renowned poet and great orator in the tenth century, was contemporaneous with the reign of Shah Tahmaseb and, Shah Ismail Safavid, and the eldest son of Shah Tahmaseb, Shah Mohammad Khodabandeh.

What remains to this day from Vahshi poems and comes to us is the following: the lyrics, odes, tracks, composition clauses, rather than dams, Qatrain, scattered Masnavies and three Masnavies: Khold e Barin, Nazer and Manzoor, and Farhad and Shirin.

Vahshi lyrics style

Vahshi verse literally, wording style, the word build combinations is close to Hindi lyrics style. Music composition and specific application quality in terms of Hindi poets distinguish the style from other styles. In Vahshi poetry it can be felt, There for Vahshi's speech is similar to the spoken language. Words such as: inconsiderate, ungenerous, inattentive, cause, need, now, and market are very close to our modern terminology and Less has been used in previous works. Vahshi's speech is the people's language but according to poet's education, his speech is literary and at the same simplicity and proximity, it is not equal to market's language and there are not in the same level.

Terms and compounds such as: careless insane, exciting love, cruel mistress, sweet heart, alien burner, seizing one by collar and... Hindi and the effect and popularity of it, affected Vahshi's poem and one could imagine it easily:

A dusty Vahshi’s face comes like Tornado
Where does this careless insane come from?
Cruel love seize me by the collar
The tailor has difficulties with my torn collar
My alien burner sweetheart ,cruel mistress
If you made me familiar what should I do then?
(Vahshi's poetical book 1960, 11-19)

Sometimes in Vahshi’s lyrics we find some proximity to Hindi style like:

Because of my bad luck chaff escapes from amber
Instead of leaf our tree makes dagger
The poison of regretful is something we took under soil
This grass that grows from our gravesite
(The same source:12)
Another common point of his poetry with Hindi style is heavy weights in lyrics, but the number of lines are shorter than Hindi style.

Hindi's also poetry are different from Vahshi's lyrics in thought and way of thinking. There isn't any attention to love in Hindi's lyric, but it is the only importance in Vahshi's speech. Love is the foundations of Vahshi's lyric. Vahshi's lyric are not only containing: advice, wisdom, philosophy, mysticism, but he paid attention to lyric's mission and it's love according to lyric's meanings. (The same source:21).

The actual inflammation in Vahshi's speech and poetry made up ordinary people to accept it. Since he such as some storytelling lyricism and some poets who praise something or somebody has not dabbled in poetry. he is a crazy flaming lover who tells the story of his broken heart and expresses his sympathy with short lyrics, in such a way that apparently none of Iranian lyricism has not such a familiarity with earthly love.

This great poet of the tenth century, because of avoiding mind digression didn't use adornment obviously, though had enough possession in literary. Only he used beautiful figures of speech and spoke about a flaming love and amorous qualifications. he adorned his poem in such a method and never was extravagant, so his poem is very simple and natural. He expressed many moral issues, like modesty and humility with beautiful allegories so it became tangible and unique.

So Vahshi's poetry make our mind to be forgotten this idea that the best poetry is the most false one. His speech is heartfelt and without mask, so the listener truly trust, and ultimately, his poems are according to his feelings and conscience, since it comes from his soul, goes in to one's heart.

Vahshi's poetry from Psycho lyrics point of view is called a free-thinking person the poem is trying to avoid poetry imitations and to be new and modern, since the genuineness of poem is its indicator; being fresh and miscellaneous is delightful, if it were true not false, (Zarrinkoub, 1977, p 16).

The Themes of Vahshi Bafghi's poem, mainly including: love, praise and worship, and mourn, the elegy, satire and abuse that among these the main part of his Poems is love. Vahshi's love, infatuation, burner and heart rending feelings is unique in the world. Undoubtedly if he wasn't a real lover and lost heart, and his heart wasn't so broken and exhausted so this hidden fire wasn't so strong he couldn't say these pathetic, fiery, heart-rending and painful, words and the secret of his speech is just his anguish and they are effective because of coming from his flaming heart.

Vahshi's love is a diagram of risking all in gambling and his speech is the language of doleful people. There is no listener who does not pay attention to his tender words and has no feelings and one's sorrows couldn't be awake. In fact, the best part of the Vahshi's poem is his lyrics which are so pathetic and amorous. Hosein Nakhaiee who brought 397 lyrics of Vahshi in his poetical book noted: they are the most beautiful reminiscence of Vahshi Bafghi (Nakhaiee, introduction Vahshi's poetical book, 1960: 87).

Pathetic and sad words that Vahshi left in the beginning of "Farhad and Shirin" and requested an afflicted heart and inflammable chest, is truly the golden leaf and rare in literary, Vahshi's speech is unique in recognizing true love and praising of God's power.

According to Vahshi's point of view the foundation of everything in the world is love, and as we have seen, in all of the world anything isn't empty of this desire and he knew the universe as a "parasite of love".

The universe is as a parasite of love
Love is because of grace's domination and desire's extension
If you want to search about origin of love
You can't see anything except desire at first
Even if you drink from life spring
Without love you are such a dead

The main theme of the most commonly used words in the Vahshi's poetry, especially the lyrics of the poetical book, the word love is that combines the following ways:

Shrine of Love, King of Love, King of Love, alchemy of love, lasso of love dice love wine, love, love the sea and ...

Of course, the Vahshi Bafghi lyrics and lyrical poetry of Rudaki and his contemporaries similarities seen, So that we can restore Vahshi Bafghi Khorasani style ones, which unfortunately did not join in time he realized it was two centuries action. (Molla ahmad, 1998, 43)

2. CONCLUSION

After investigation in Vahshi Bafghi's poetry, we can conclude that he wasn't eager to use of imagery and simply states are the main characteristics of his oratory style. Also some words are frequently used. These words are common in Vahshi's lyrics and the main focus of them is on love. But the basic point about his poetry is: "the most real one is the most beautiful".
